

Spring 2008 Programme

Welcome to our 8th Season of A Play A Pie and A Pint. We have 17 new plays for you. Plays set in Burma, China, Russia, Ancient Greece, the Balkans, Spain, Guatemala, and all over Scotland! There's comedy, tragedy, history play and musical and there's something for every taste, meat eating or vegetarian, and there's no more fun a way to spend a lunch hour in Glasgow.

Oran Mór looks forward to welcoming you.

"For producer David MacLennan and his team, it is been a stunning achievement for A Play A Pie and A Pint at Oran Mór the future looks bright... three years of extraordinary achievement it had to happen: the Play, Pie and Pint lunchtime theatre season is now such a successful platform for new work that it is beginning to attract playwrights and producers from all over the UK." Joyce MacMillan, The Scotsman

"Here's to the first 100 plays, and every pie and pint that went with them."
Neil Cooper, The Herald

"...spontaneous applause and whoops of delight greet an opening performance the response on Monday at lunchtime to Deirdre Kinahan's gloriously life-affirming two-hander... this short, bittersweet and hugely affecting little drama is worth travelling to see sincerity triumphs over cynicism in a scene that must be seen to be believed, and to which words could never do justice. Then a killer combination of dialogue and gesture brings the play to an abrupt yet quietly optimistic close, leaving the gobsmacked audience reeling." The Herald

Doors open at 12 midday (Monday 12.30)
